

"Tell me who your friends are, and I'll tell you who you are." Joseph DeFranco, MD/DAD, translation of old Italian proverb

Dear Friend,

They say first impressions are lasting. This one certainly was.

I was so impressed by a speech Marisa gave at a Democratic Coalition breakfast that I made it a point to approach her afterwards.

We spent several hours talking policy and politics and I was moved by both her passion and her principles.

That's why I am proud to support Marisa for her Congressional bid and here is why:

Marisa is willing to stand up for what is right, not what is politically expedient.

Besides honesty and integrity, she has genuine empathy for those struggling to get along. As an immigration attorney, she knows first-hand the challenges faced by those with little to no resources - and she helps them - every workday of her life.

She understands the problems faced by small business owners, healthcare providers, and anyone who must work for a living.

She herself is a small business owner running a law firm. You cannot get any closer to reality than that.

With parents who are medical professionals, she knows first-hand the problems healthcare providers are facing today.

As a nurse myself I appreciate this knowledge. But she also has in depth knowledge of other problems facing our country and is well versed in global affairs. Her well rounded awareness and expertise is impressive.

If she says she will do something, you can be sure she will! She not only talks the talk but actually walks the walk!

Marisa will not be taking any PAC money. She needs the support of her closest friends - like myself - to help her win the primary.

Thank you for taking the time to read through this message and I hope to hear from you soon.
