

Read what you have to look forward to!

Performing on Thursday is Christine Hurley, First Runner up on the Nationally televised "Nick-at-Nites" search for America's Funniest Mom. Artie Januario -- one of Boston's premiere comedians -- and a pharmacist by day and Carolyn Plummer whose perception of our common existence leaves audiences hysterically shaking their heads in agreement.

And all this laughter is backed-up by unlimited pizza!

Marisa and I look forward to seeing you on Thursday!

My best,

Maura
