

Dear Friend,

AT&T offers PAC money to John Tierney. John Tierney accepts money from AT&T.

What is the lobbyist's expectation? I'm sure you know the answer.

But our opponent is hardly alone. It is a problem endemic to the entire system -- Democrat and Republican alike.

PAC money is corrupting the system and is exactly why our cell phone bills are so high and why we are not likely to have legislation to protect consumers -- like the laws recently passed in Canada to protect their citizens from outrageous billing practices.

I'm reaching out to you to help obtain our goal of raising $50K by December 30th. That's the amount we need to be viable in this race.

Because I will not be taking money from lobbyists or corporations, I need your support. The support of my friends, my colleagues and my family.

Please click here now to support our campaign. It would mean a great deal to me.

When I am elected to congress, I will not only support legislation to empower consumers, but will author and sponsor that legislation.

Won't you consider making a donation today? It would mean a lot to me to have your support

Thank you again for your friendship and support. I look forward to seeing you soon.

My very best,

Marisa DeFranco
